Knob Whispers

Leaving on craggy hills and running streams
a softness like the atmosphere of dreams

Dedication

It is hard to put into a few short sentences, an expression of gratitude for nine years of faith and hard work. However, in recognition and appreciation of one who gives willingly of her time, her energy, and her patience to promote good will between teacher and student and who leaves with us a deep impression of equality and fairness in her understanding of young people, we the seniors of Pilot Mountain High School of 1958 do hereby dedicate, as a token of our esteem, the 1958 edition of Knob Whispers to Mrs. Sue Boaz Swanson.

"She murmurs near the running brooks
A music sweeter than their own."
William Wordsworth

Administration

O, could I flaw like thee, and make thy stream
My great example, as it is my theme!
Thaugh deep, yet clear; though gentle, yet not dull;
Strong, withaut rage; without a'erflowing, full

Sir John Denham

Of nothing comes nothing: springs rise not above
Their source in the far-hidden heart of the mountains;
Whence then have descended the Wisdom and Love
That in man leap to light in intelligent fountains?
